Status - Sanctioned by

INAS Europe - for para-athletes with an intellectual impairment.

Technical support

All protagonists of the French sports movement.

Dates

From 14th to 22nd July 2018

Venue

Known as the 'City of Light', it is impossible not to fall in love with Paris. The city is always alive in every season; tourists and visitors discover that there are plenty to do for amusement, shopping and entertainment.

Bastille Day, this is the day of your arrival !

The most important holiday in France happens in mid-July, when the start of the French Revolution by storming the Bastille and the ideals of liberty, equality and brotherhood are celebrated all over the country. Dancing, military parades and ceremonies, and general festivities center around the place de la Bastille and all along the Champs Elysees.

Paris is especially known for its museums and architectural landmarks: the Louvre is the most visited art museum in the world in 2016, with 7.4 million visitors. The Musée d'Orsay and the Musée de l'Orangerie are noted for their collections of French Impressionist art, and the Pompidou Center Musée National d'Art Moderne has the largest collection of modern and contemporary art in Europe. The historical district along Seine River in the city center is classified as a UNESCO Heritage Site. Popular landmarks in the center of the city include the Cathedral of Notre Dame de Paris and The Gothic royal chapel of Sainte-Chapelle both on the Île de la Cité. The Eiffel Tower, constructed for the Paris Universal Exposition of 1889; the Grand Palais and Petit Palais build for the Paris Universal Exposition of 1900, the Arc de Triomphe on the Champs Elysees and the Basilica of Sacré-Coeur on the hill of Montmartre. Paris received 22.2 million visitors in 2015, making it one of the world's top tourist destinations.

Yet Paris will not be Paris without the contribution of numerous and famous sport activities, as you will read below.

The association football club Paris Saint-Germain and the rugby union club Stade Français are based in Paris. The 80,000-seat Stade de France, built for the 1998 FIFA World Cup, is located just north of Paris in the neighboring commune of Saint-Denis. Paris hosts the annual French Open Grand Slam tennis tournament on the red clay of Roland Garros. Paris hosted the Olympic Games in 1900, 1924 and will host the 2024 Summer Olympics. The 1938 and 1998 FIFA World Cups, the 2007 Rugby World Cup and the 1960, 1984 and 2016 UEFA European Championships were also held in the city, and every July, the Tour de France bicycle race finishes in the city.

Visas requirements

Visa to come to France might be required for some countries. Please check in your own local authorities and send the visa requirement letter to contact@inasparis2018.fr with the following information: name, surname, date and place of birth, passport number and expiry date.

Note : remember that visa request may need a long time especially in some countries, so please send as soon as you can the names and data of the people that will come to France so that we can prepare the invitation letter.

Doping controls

This event is subject to random doping tests in accordance with the INAS Anti-Doping Policy, details of which can be found at www.inas.org. Any athlete taking medication subject to doping controls needs to complete the INAS TUE form and submit to the INAS Head of anti-doping at least 21 days in advance of their arrival at this event. These forms are available from the INAS website.

An anti-doping commission will be set up under the direction of Dr. Nathalie Catajar, Physician to the French Federation of Adapted Sport. This is the law in force in INAS / IPC which will apply to this event.

The provider appointed by the FFSA in agreement with INAS could be the French Agency for the Fight against Doping (AFLD). The latter, on request, will send the approved « screeners » for doping controls. They will be in possession of an official map and a mission order. They will bring the necessary equipment for sampling.

Eligibility

All athletes entering the event must appear on the INAS Master List no later than the final entry deadline.

Applications for new athletes must be submitted to INAS as soon as possible.

Athletes who do not appear on the INAS Master List are not eligible for this event. There is no 'guest' entry.

According to the rules of INAS, the competition is opened to the II1 INAS category: athletes with intellectual impairment.

Moreover, the following individual disciplines are opened on a demonstration basis, and on a few number of events, to the II2 - trial group for athletes with a more significant intellectual impairment - e.g. Down Syndrome and II3 - athletes with high-functioning autism - categories: Athletics - Swimming - Table tennis.

IPC Classification

Negotiations are in progress with IPC to organise a classification during the event.

Insurance

Participating teams are responsible for their own insurance requirements for travel, personal accident, liability, and medical matters

5. Sports rules and regulations

According to the rules of ITF - International Tennis Federation - and INAS.

The following programme of events will be held:

- Team Competition (male event & female event - 2 players in one team)
- Men's Singles
- Women's Singles
- Men's Doubles
- Women's Doubles
- Mixed Doubles

Competitors may enter the singles, doubles and mixed doubles events - subject to information below

In doubles and team events, all players must play with players from their own nation. In exceptional circumstances where there is a player from a nation who can compete in one event only, then if possible the INAS Tennis Director will try to offer another event with a player from another nation so that the player can compete in two events.

Team Competition :

- There will be a Men's Team Competition and a Women's Team Competition
- Each team will consist of 2 male or 2 female players
- A nation can enter a maximum of 2 teams per event
- The results of the Team Competition will be taken from the position each player finishes in the Men's & Women's Singles Competition
- Points will be allocated, eg. the winner of the Men's Singles will get 1 point, the runner-up, 2 points etc, down to the last player in the draw
- The top team will be the 2 players from the same nation with the lowest combined score, etc.
- In the case of two teams having the same score, the placings will be decided on the highest 2nd placed athlete, eg If Team A has scored 1 and 4 = 5 and Team B has 2 and 3 = 5, the 2nd athletes score will decide, so Team B will be placed higher than Team A.
