CULTURAL PROGRAMMES

Milan is one of the most beautiful and interesting Italian cities. The city hosts the famous Leonardo's masterpiece Last Supper as well as many monuments as Duomo, La Scala, The Castle, Santa Maria and St. Ambrogio churches, Navigli the Leonardo's canals, many Art Museums like Brera and Ambrosiana as well as the San Siro Stadium. Most of the above mentioned are free of charges.

We do not have to mention the La Scala theater to remind that Milan is the national cultural capital and one of the most interesting European cities. If Piazza Duomo is the historic heart of Milan, Piazza Gae Aulenti represents the new face of the city, the symbol of a metropolis that is changing and looking ahead to the future.

A cultural programme will be dedicated to the athletes, officials and supporters. An agreement with the city sightseeing bus company will be reached to provide free or discounted tickets.
